

Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009

ACCESS APPLICATION

Applications made to the Information and Privacy Commission

This application form can be used to submit a request for information held by the Information and Privacy Commission of NSW (IPC).

Please note:

The Information and Privacy Commission of NSW does not hold information held by other NSW agencies such as local councils, NSW Police and other NSW Government agencies. To seek access to such information you should contact that agency directly. If you are not sure please contact the IPC for assistance.

Please complete this form to apply for formal access to government information under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA Act). If you need help in filling out this form, please contact the Information and Privacy Commission NSW on 1800 472 679.

Are you seeking personal information? Yes / No (circle one)

In some circumstances, such as if you are seeking access to your personal information, we may need to ask that you provide us with certified documents proving your identity. Please only provide us with proof of identity if we ask for it. If you have applied at any time to another agency for substantially the same information, please provide the name of the other agency

3. Form of access

How do you wish to access the information?

- ☐ Inspect the document(s) ☐ A copy of the document(s)
- ☐ Access in another way (please specify)

4. Application fee

Under section 127 of the GIPA Act, the IPC exercises its discretion to waive the charge of $30 for the application fee.

5. Third Party Consultation

Under section 54 of the GIPA Act, if the information you are requesting contains information about another person, business or government agency, the IPC may be required to consult with third parties before deciding your application. The purpose of this consultation is for the IPC to determine whether the third party has an objection to disclosure of some or all of the information being requested. Please indicate whether you consent to your identity as an applicant being disclosed to the involved third party:

Do you object to this? Yes / No (circle one)

6. Disclosure log

If the information sought is released to you and we consider it may be of interest to other members of the public, details about your application may be recorded in the agency's 'disclosure log'. This is published on our website. If you object to this, we must first decide if you are entitled to object and if so, whether the objection outweighs the general public interest in including this information in the disclosure log.

General information about the GIPA Act is available by calling the Information and Privacy Commission on 1800 472 679 or visit the IPC's website: www.ipc.nsw.gov.au

File reference:

You can only object to the inclusion of information on an agency's disclosure log for one or more of the following grounds:

- The information includes personal information about you (or a deceased person for whom you are the personal representative)
- The information concerns your business, commercial, professional or financial interests
- The information concerns research that has been, or is being, or is intended to be , carried out by or on your behalf
- The information concerns the affairs of a government of the Commonwealth or another State (and you are entitled to act on behalf of that government agency).

Do you object to this? Yes / No (circle one)

Please note: if an agency decides to include information in its disclosure log despite your objection, you can seek a review of this decision.

7. Discount in processing charges

You may be asked to pay a charge for processing the application ($30 / hour). Some applicants may be entitled to a 50% reduction in their processing charges. If you wish to apply for a discount, please indicate the reason:

- ☐ Financial hardship – please attach supporting documentation (eg a pension or Centrelink card).

AND / OR

- ☐ Special benefit to the public – please specify why below:
