

Local councils' use of Closed Circuit TV (CCTV)

Local councils in New South Wales are exempt from provisions under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (PIIP Act) to use CCTV cameras in public places.

Local councils are exempt from some obligations in the PIIP Act relating to the collection of personal information by using a CCTV camera installed for the purpose of filming in a public place, and the disclosure to NSW Police of that information by way of live transmission.

Clause 9 of this Regulation says:

Clause 9 – Exemption for local councils in relation to CCTV cameras.

- 1) A local council is exempt from section 11 of the Act with respect to the collection of personal information by using a CCTV camera that the council has installed for the purpose of filming a public place if the camera is positioned so no other land is filmed (unless it is not reasonably practicable to avoid filming the other land when filming the public place).
- 2) The local council is also exempt from section 18 of the Act with respect to the disclosure to the NSW Police Force of personal information by way of live transmission from such a CCTV camera.
- 3) In this clause, public place has the same meaning as in the Local Government Act 1993.

Local councils are also encouraged to refer to the NSW Government Policy Statement and Guidelines for Establishment and Implementation of Closed Circuit Television \(CCTV\) in Public Places available at www.lawlink.nsw.gov.au.
